

SPAIN

REYES LÓPEZ

She pursued her studies at Colegio Estudio and St. Anne's School, continuing her education in institutions in the United States, England, and France. She graduated in Law from San Pablo CEU University with a postgraduate degree in Advanced Studies in Publishing from Oxford Brookes University and the Senior Program in Business Management and Communication Management from the Instituto de Empresa. She joined Grupo Gourmets in January 1996. At that time, she was responsible for external relations, press relations, and dealings with authorities, also managing the Communication Department of the Gourmets Fair, a role she continues to fulfill today. She has edited more than 50 books in her career and has been the Deputy Director of Grupo Gourmets and the Director of the Club de Gourmets magazine since 2006.

